25X1X

1. Sometime in 1950, an infantry regiment, field post number not known, arrived in Starogard (Q 54/D38); it is not known where this particular regiment had been stationed prior to its arrival in Starogard.
2. During the war the Germans built a landing field for planes in Starogard, and since 1952 this landing field has been enlarged and is today a large modern airfield. Informant does not know the exact location of this airfield, but he has heard from individuals who have been there that it is but a short distance southeast of Starogard.
